Accommodation & Food

About the Accommodation

The accommodation is located on the school compound of a Karen Tribe village in Kaeng Krachan National Park. At this great location, you will live inside a Karen Tribe Village with basic facilities. You will have the chance to be immersed in the Karen culture at this unique site.

Food Arrangements

Three meals will be provided each day at the accommodation. These are typically Thai-style.

Facilities

There is a local shop inside the village where participants can buy their necessities. However, there is no ATM available. Although you don't need much money at all during your stay in the village, please make sure to bring some cash with you to fulfill your own needs whenever necessary.

Mandatory Orientation Day

At this location there is no mandatory orientation day offered.

Activities & Events

Varying times

Throughout the week, we will take you to a local market, visit beautiful natural sceneries and a waterfall. There is also a river nearby where the local Karen children love to take a dive in. You are free to join the fun at any time or walk around to enjoy one of the most beautiful and untouched areas of Thailand.

Sights & Surroundings

Kaeng Krachan National Park, with its high rate of biodiversity and tropical vegetation, is heaven for nature lovers. Kaeng Krachan has it all: wild animals, beautiful trees, plants and flowers, stunning mountain sceneries and hills, beautiful rivers and lakes and an authentic local tribe population.
