(1) Only one big meal (breakfast). This is due to the fact that monks eat only once a day.

(2) Coffee and tea during the mornings. Water available at all times.

Accommodation & Food

About the Accommodation

You will be staying in simple single gender rooms inside the monastery. Thin blankets are provided upon request.

Food Arrangements

After almsgiving, the community brings in food for breakfast and a gigantic buffet filled with food of all kinds is served. Breakfast will be the only meal we will have, as monks and those living permanently inside monasteries only eat one meal a day.

Facilities

Due to its rural location, the nearest ATM and amenities are in Wang Nam Khiao (30 minutes by car), so please make sure you have enough money with you before arriving for your stay. There are small local shops nearby where you can buy basic things.

Mandatory Orientation Day

At this location there is no mandatory orientation day offered.

Activities & Events

No scheduled activities outside the program.

Sights & Surroundings

The area is very rural and offers beautiful views and Thai countryside to explore by foot or bike.
