Accommodation & Food

About the Accommodation

The Akha hill tribe village is outside the city of Chiang Rai and you will be living there during your time on this program. Our center is located within the village and the style of the rooms was made in order to resemble the rest of the houses in the village. You will be sharing a dormitory style room with your fellow participants. As it is common in the village, don't expect beds. You are likely to sleep on a mattress on the ground.

Cell phone reception is incredibly limited - you really are living in and experiencing rural Thailand at this location! But you might be able to reach some reception at higher levels.

Food Arrangements

Local dishes are provided on site - 3 meals per day, but 2 during the weekends. Please note that you will be expected to cook dinner on Fridays in order to show the Akha people the food from your home country!

Facilities

There is a small village shop but please remember this is an incredibly rural and authentic location - there are no ATMs, so please make sure you arrive to the location with some cash on you.

Mandatory Orientation Day

At this location there is no mandatory orientation day offered.

Activities & Events

No scheduled activities outside the program.

Sights & Surroundings

You will be taken on treks as part of the program and can choose to go on self-guided hikes during your free time.
