Mekong Delta

Vietnam

Welcome to one of the most famous regions in all of Vietnam. The Mekong River is probably the most well known body of water in Southeast Asia and the way of life along the river is like no other. The Mekong Delta is in southern Vietnam and here you will find floating markets, rice paddies, swamps, and even houses on the water along with plenty of slow boat activity traversing the many canals and tributaries. This is a great location to explore the heart of what is lovingly referred to as the "rice bowl" in Vietnam.
